

Seeking Research Volunteers

Supporting the Parents and Carers of Children who Experience

Suicidal Thoughts and Behaviours

Researchers at the University of Wollongong are looking for parents and carers of children who experience suicidal thoughts and behaviours to share their experiences of seeking support from their social networks.

Who can participate?

Parents and carers of a child who experiences suicidal thoughts and behaviours and is currently in Year 5 or 6 of primary school. This study focuses on parents and carers supporting a child with these experiences, not carers experiencing suicidal thoughts and behaviours themselves.

What is involved?

A 30-minute anonymous online survey

An optional 30-minute phone interview with a researcher
