Caring for a family member or friend living with a disability can feel overwhelming – especially when it comes to understanding housing and support options under the NDIS.

Join Presenters Stefanie Colella, Scope Business Development Manager, and Hayley Maxwell, an experienced Disability Sector Professional, to guide you through:

- Understanding the home and living services and supports available under the NDIS
- Ensuring you have the right team to support you to get the best possible outcomes
- Understand how disability accommodation funding works
- The steps to take to secure the right housing solution.

The presentation will be followed by a Q&A session.

Location

This is an online event. A link will be provided upon registration.

Who should attend

This session is open to all carers and their families. Attendance is free, but registration is required.

About the experts

Stefanie Colella is a Business Development Manager for Home and Living at Scope in Victoria, with a background in developing partnerships, client/participant advocacy, and delivering innovative housing solutions to empower people with a disability.

Hayley Maxwell has over 10 years' experience in the disability sector, supporting individuals and families to navigate the NDIS. Starting in Support Coordination, she led large teams across NSW and specialised in Home and Living supports. Hayley is now the Senior Manager of Acquisition at Scope.

This event is FREE for carers but you do need to register to attend.
